1 August 1962

Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langley, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

I am pleased to express the appreciation of the U. S. Army Intelligence School for the highly effective presentation concerning U. S. strategic intelligence, on 23 July 1962, by [redacted] to personnel attending Class 63-SO-1 of the Senior Foreign Officer Intelligence Course at Fort Holabird.

STAT

This talk proved to be most stimulating to the senior foreign officers. It afforded them a deeper appreciation of the true nature of good strategic intelligence and generated an excellent seminar discussion of the subject.

Your continued cooperation in our training program is most appreciated. Would you please convey my sincere thanks to [redacted] for his valuable assistance.
